

APPENDIX

About the Authors

Susan Klopfer is the author of the computer book "Abort! Retry! Fail!" (Prentice Hall), selected as a Book of-the-Month Club alternate selection. She holds an MBA degree from Indiana Wesleyan University and a BA degree from Hanover College. She is a former acquisitions and development editor for Simon and Schuster (Prentice Hall), and is an award-winning journalist for her investigative reporting in Missouri. She is the pet owner of Maury (the gray and white-striped cat) and Popsicle, a venturesome rescue cat.

Dr. Fred Klopfer is the author of "Internet Success with Fred." He is both a social and clinical psychologist with degrees from Michigan State University, Texas Tech University and the Forest School of Professional Psychology. His black Himalayan cat is named Claudius.

Barry Klopfer, Esq., is a New Mexico attorney with degrees from Antioch College and the City University of New York (CUNY) School of Law. He cares for Klaus, the Tuxedo cat with white paws..